

◀(●) LORELEI AND (●)▶ THE LASER EYES

In your hands is a companion for your journey through Lorelei and the Laser Eyes. We've created this notebook to optimize and simplify your note taking during your playthrough. There is no right or wrong when it comes to taking notes—this notebook simply provides suggestions and convenience. Feel free to use it however you see fit.

As each playthrough is unique, we've divided this notebook into sections of three playthroughs, so that you can start afresh with new notes when you start a new game. Each section ends with a few pages dedicated for free form notes.

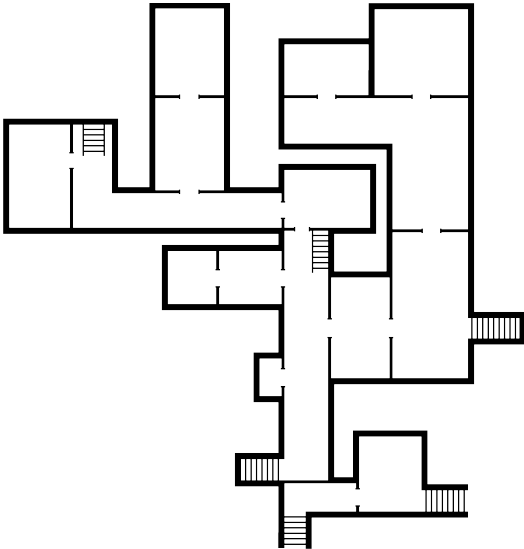

We hope it will be useful, and that it will elevate your experience with Lorelei and the Laser Eyes.

Roman Numeral System

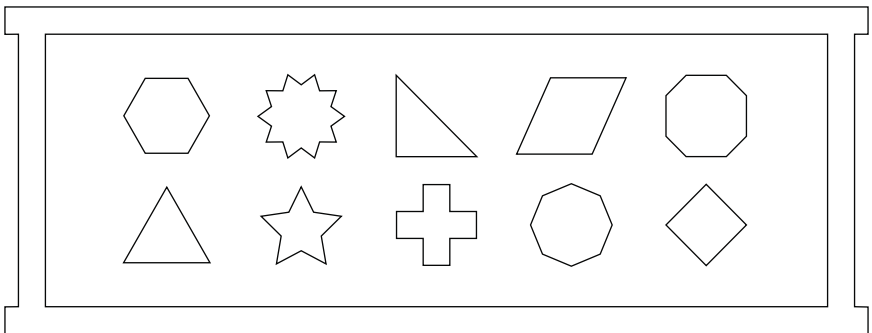

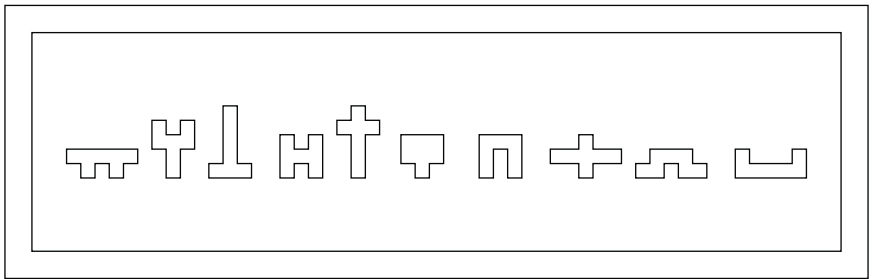

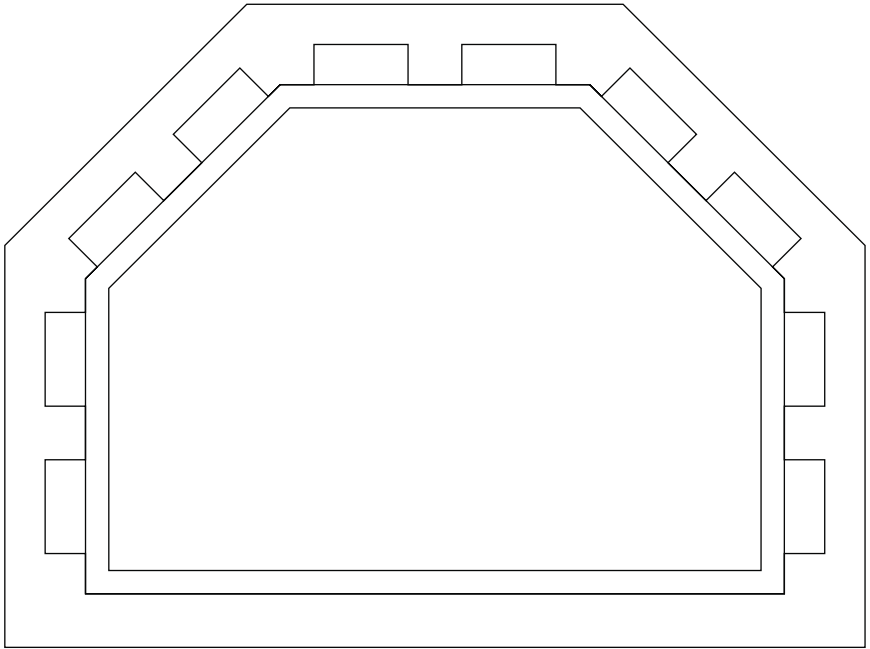

When using the Roman numeral system, one has to arrange the symbols in different ways using addition and subtraction. For example, IX is 9 (10-1) and VI is 6 (5+1). To use some larger numbers as examples, 2014 is MMXIV (1000+1000+10+4), 1963 is MCMLXIII (1000+1000-100+50+10+3), and 1847 is MDCCCXLVII (1000+500+300+40+7).

24-hour clock

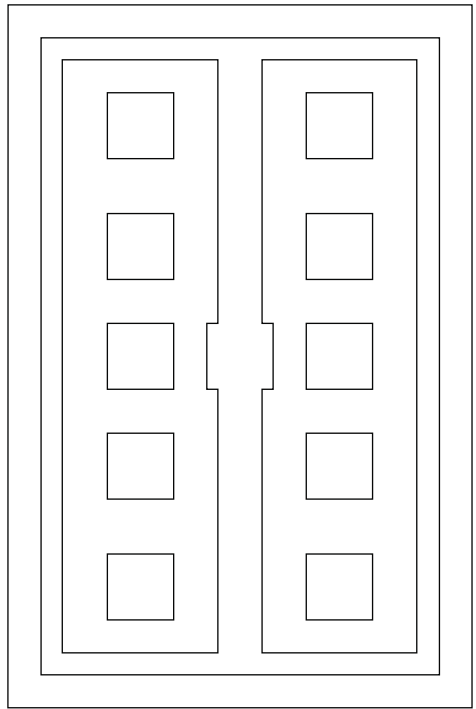

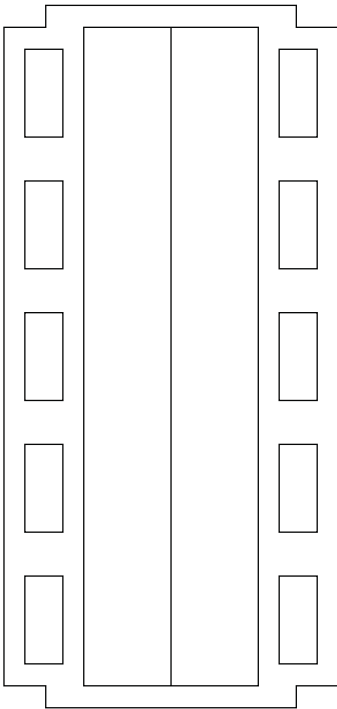

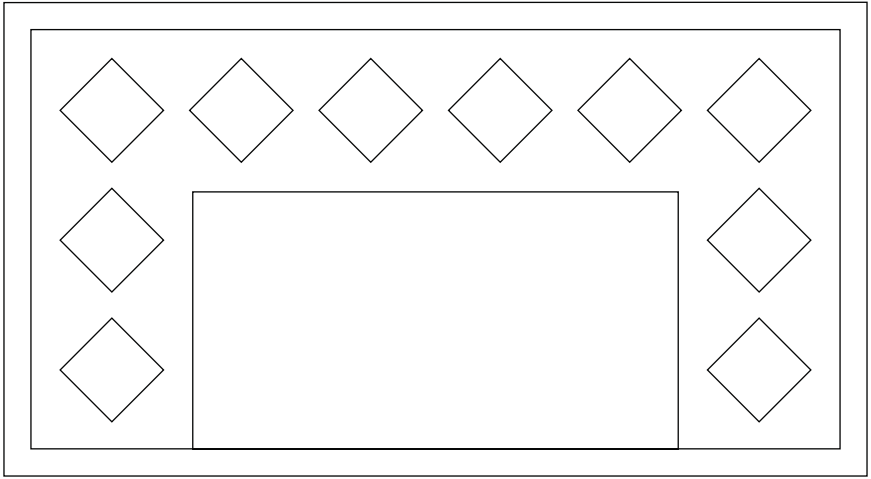

Unlike the 12-hour system, the superior 24-hour clock system is divided into 24 hours, counting from midnight to midnight.

For example, 00:00 is midnight, 20:14 is fourteen minutes past eight in the evening, and 18:47 is forty-seven minutes past six in the evening.
